be taken at Santander. That city apparently needs an example. As the insurrection looks serious, we must act with large numbers.

7th. Dupont should have reached Cordova to-day.

9th. The King of Naples arrived here yesterday. He is recognised as King of Spain, and will start for Madrid. He has already accepted the oaths of allegiance of several grandees of Spain who are here, of the deputation from the Council of Castille, of the Council of the Indies, and of the Inquisition.

Saragossa has raised the standard of revolt.

13th. (To Murat.) I am sending General Savary to help you. I regret -your illness from every point of view.

16th. General Lefebvre found the army of the rebels of Saragossa, commanded by Palafox, on some heights. General Lefebvre marched straight on the enemy, struck them in flank, and did great execution.

17th. (To Cambaceres.) My Cousin: I hear that extravagant reports are circulated at Fouche"s. Since the rumours of a divorce were first started, I am told that it is a constant topic at his receptions, although I have expressed my opinion on the matter to him ten times. Have a talk with Fouche and tell him it is time people stopped speaking in this way, and that the thing is scandalous.

80th, Marracq:

It is very desirable that Saragossa should surrender promptly; it appears that such an event would greatly influence the submission of Spain.

July 1st. If it is true that (the troops from) the camp of Gibraltar have marched on Cordova, it may be that
